Upon rescission of the acceptance, the Company shall give notice to the individual to notify him of the rescission. However, the Company is not obliged to give any reason to the individual for the Company's decision to rescind.

Section 3 - Independent Contractor

3.1 A Business Owner is an independent business owner having the rights and obligations conferred by these terms of agreement and the P&P (Policies and Procedures) Manual to promote or market the products of Sante International Corporation.

3.2. A Business Owner is not a branch, franchisee, partner, employee, agent or Representative of Sante International Corporation. He has no right to and shall not represent himself/herself as such. The relationship between a Business Owner and Sante International Corporation is wholly governed by these terms of agreement and the P&P of Sante International Corporation. Any breach of this clause on the part of the Business Owner is considered a serious breach of these Terms of Agreement and may result in the immediate termination of his/her BusinessOwnership.

3.3 A Business Owner is not an employee of the Company. Any costs he/she incurs in the development of his/her business are at his/her own expense. He/She shall not be entitled to seek reimbursement from theCompany.

3.4 Similarly, the Company is not responsible for payment or co-payment of any employee benefits for its Business Owners. Business Owners are responsible for their own liability, health disability and workmen's compensation insurance,etc.

Section 4 -Business Owner's Rights and Obligations

4.1 Non-exclusivity

A Business Owner has a non-exclusive right to market and promote products of Sante International Corporation. There are no geographical limitations existing in sponsoring or selling the products; provided, however, that the Company reserves the right not to sell products or services in any states, territories or countries.

Further, the sale, marketing, promotion and distribution of the products of Sante International Corporation shall be made in accordance with this Agreement, as well as the other rules, regulations and policies as may be issued by the Company

4.2 Right to sponsor

Only a Business Owner has a right to sponsor another new Business Owner to Sante International Corporation and enjoys the benefits under the Sante International Corporation's Compensation Plan for doing so. When sponsoring a new Business Owner to Sante International Corporation, the sponsoring Business Owner shall give the persons whom he/she intends to sponsor a copy of the Terms and Agreement, and the details of the Compensation Plan.

In this case, the Sponser shall be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement and other terms, conditions and policies as may be issued by the Company. The Business Owner agrees and understands that it may be held liable for any and all acts of the Sponsor in violation of any of the terms and conditions of this agreement.

4.3 Rights to Company Literatures & Communication etc. & to participate inCompany Functions

Business Owners may receive periodic literature and other communication from Sante International Corporation. They will also be invited to, and upon payment of appropriate charges if applicable, participate in Company-sponsored support, service, training, motivational and recognition functions. 4.5 Obligation for personal promotion

Business Owners have an ongoing obligation to continue to personally promote sales through the introduction of new Business Owners to Sante International Corporation and through servicing their existing Business Owners.

4.6 Obligations to Sponsored BusinessOwners

Any Business Owner who introduces another Business Owner to Sante International Corporation is highly recommended to perform his/her duties as a sponsor to provide all necessary information about the company and provide training about the company, products and compensation plan and shall discuss Terms and Conditions to ensure that his sponsored Business Owner is properly informed and can independently operate and conduct his/her Sante business. It is both to the advantage of the Sponsor and their sponsored Business Owners to have regular contact and communication.

Business Owners must truthfully and fairly describe the Compensation Plan. No past, potential or actual income claims may be made to prospective Business Owners. Nor may Business Owners use their own incomes, or other Business Owner's income as indications of the success assured to others. Commission checks shall not be used as marketing materials. Business Owners shall not guarantee commissions or estimate expenses to prospects.

4.7 Cross-Lining

No Business Owner may sponsor or attempt to sponsor another registered Business Owner from a different line of sponsorship to "switch" to another line of sponsorship.

Examples of cross-lining are:

Placement of a new Business Owner using anyone's name known to the sponsor Business Owner and placing it in lines of sponsorship outside the Sponsor Business Owner's primary Business Account while intending to profit from the proceeds of the said new Business Owner;

A Business Owner owning an interest in an entity which is a Business Owner in lines of sponsorship not below his primary Business Account; Entering in other lines of sponsorship under the same name. Any situation (whether the above examples or others) found to be in violation of this clause shall result in termination of the newly placed Business Owner, as well as the Member having instigated the said situation.

4.8 Obligation of not referring to Other Programs

A Business Owner shall not sponsor or attempt to sponsor or knowingly assist another person to sponsor another Business Owner or any person into any other multi-level networking marketing company or into another Business Owner's sales organization. In addition, no Business Owner shall participate in any action knowing that participating in the action may cause another Business Owner or any person to be sponsored through someone else into another multi-level networking marketing company.

Business Owners are strictly prohibited to promote any direct or indirect competitive services, products and/or business programs. At Sante International Corporation's function or on Sante International Corporation's property, no Business Owner shall solicit any person to join any other multi-level networking marketing company or involve the sale of products of any other network marketing company. Breach of any part of this clause is a serious offense of the P&P and may lead to the immediate suspension or termination of the Business Ownership of the Business Owner who is in breach.

4.9 Breach of Security

All Business Owners have a responsibility to maintain the network integrity of the Company. Any Member who is found attempted “hacking” into or interfering or tampering with the Company’s database or any part of the Company’s computer system (hardware and/or software) or attempting to do any of the aforesaid acts shall be liable to immediate termination of his Membership. They shall also be liable for all consequential damages and losses of the Company.

4.10 Legal Compliance

Business Owners must comply with all laws, statutes, regulations and ordinances concerning the operation of their business.

4.11 Tax, Expenditures, etc.

4.11.1. Business Owners are personally responsible for paying local, state, provincial, and federal taxes on any income they generate as Independent Business Owners. Unless required by laws, regulations, or rules in any relevant countries, the Company shall have no obligation to provide tax information about the commissions and/or bonuses its Business Owners earned on behalf of Business Owners to any government authorities. However, as a withholding tax agent, any commissions paid by the Company are net of applicable withholding taxes.

4.11.2. Business owners whose monthly commissions exceeded P 25,000 shall issue a valid Official Receipt to the company. Company shall issue Creditable withholding tax (2307) for any taxes withheld from the commission.

4.12 Obligation to the Company

A Business Owner shall, at all times remain loyal to the Company and shall not publish any written and/or verbal disparaging or adverse information/statement against the Company. He shall hold the Company’s management and corporate team in high esteem at all times, failing which, he may be terminated notwithstanding that he may also be liable for libel or slander, or any allied crime as may be warranted.

Section 5 – Commissions and Bonuses

5.1. Qualification for bonuses

A Business Owner must be active and in compliance with the Agreement, P&P and the Compensation Plan to qualify for commissions and bonuses. So long as a Business Owner is entitled under the Compensation Plan to receive commissions and bonuses, the Company shall compute and pay commissions and bonuses to the Business Owner in accordance with the Compensation Plan. Business Owners must consult the Compensation Plan for a detailed explanation of the benefits, commissions and bonuses structure and the corresponding requirements. Commissions and bonuses are paid only on the sale of the company products. No commission nor bonus is paid on the purchase of the Company’s sales materials and literature or for referring other Business Owners. Commissions and bonuses are calculated for each individual business account. A Business Owner is entitled to the maximum number of Business Unit/s (BU) dependent on the type of Business Owner Product pack used to register and governed by the particular Sante International Corporation's compensation plan.

5.2 Adjustments to commissions and/or bonuses

Business Owners receive commissions and bonuses under the Compensation Plan based on the actual sales of products to Customers or Business Owners.

When a product is returned to the Company for a refund or is repurchased by the Company or the transaction is in anyway not successfully completed, the bonuses and/or other benefits attributable to the returned, repurchased product or the unsuccessful transaction will be deducted, in the commission period in which the refund or repurchase occurs, and continuing every commission period thereafter until the bonuses and/or other benefits is fully recovered from the Business Owner who received commissions and/or bonuses on the sales of the refunded or repurchased product. In addition, if the Company has already paid bonuses to a Member for returned product, the Company shall have the right to request the Member for the return of the said bonus and the Business Owner shall have the obligation to return such commissions and/or bonuses to the Company within ten (10) days from notice.

5.3 Payment of Commission

All commissions and/or bonuses a Business Owner earns will be credited to his Sante Account. The Business Owner can give instructions to the Company for the payment out of his Sante Account by way of commission check, Greenium account, Bank Account subject to corresponding processing and bank charges.

5.4 Offset

The Company shall have the right to offset any debt(s) a Business Owner owes to the Company against his bonuses and/or commissions.

Section 6- Resignation, Suspension and Termination

6.1 Resignation

A Business Owner may voluntarily terminate his Membership by sending thirty (30) days written notice of such resignation or termination to the Company. Voluntary resignation is effective upon receipt of such notice by the Company hence will result in the loss of commission rights from the Business Owner's Business Unit/s.

If a Business Owner terminates his Business Ownership, he shall be deemed to have voluntarily inactivated his Business Ownership with the Company and thereby inactivates his Business Owner status, all sponsorship rights, his/her Business Account in the Genealogy and all rights to commission payout and incentives since the date of his/her last Active Date. Business Owners who terminates their Business Ownerships may not reapply under a new sponsor for a minimum of six (6) calendar months after non-renewal.

6.2 Inactive Business Ownership would also mean forfeiture of succeeding accumulated earnings. The only commission due shall be for the last commission cycle that the Business Owner is active.

6.3 Grounds for Corrective Actions for Business Ownership suspension and/or termination

- violation of the Business Owner Terms and Agreement
- falsification of reports and submitted documents; forged documents and reports
- Failure to maintain standards of the companies
- Breach of trade secret covenances
- Fraudulent Business Units
- Misrepresentation of the compensation plan
- Cross-group sponsoring and selling
- Unethical practices

6.3.1. Suspension

A Business Owner may be suspended for violating any terms of the Agreement, P&P, the Compensation Plan and/or any other relevant documents produced by Company. When a decision is made to suspend a Business Owner, the Company will inform the Business Owner in writing of the decision, the effective date of the suspension, the reason(s) for the suspension and the steps necessary to remove such suspension (if any). The suspension notice will be sent to the Business Owner's "e-mail address on file" pursuant to the notice provisions contained in the P&P. Such suspension may or may not lead to termination of the Business Owner as so determined by Company at its sole discretion. If the Business Owner wishes to ask the Company to review the decision, he shall make such a request in writing to the Company within thirty (30) days from the date of issuance of the suspension notice. The Company will review and consider the suspension and notify the Business Owner via e-mail of its decision within thirty (30) days from the date of the receipt of the Business Owner's written request. The Company will thereafter not further review its own decision. The Company may take certain action(s) during the suspension period, including, but not limited to, the following:

6.3.1a Prohibiting the Business Owner from holding himself as Business Owner or using any of Company's proprietary marks and/or materials;

6.3.1b Withholding Commissions and Bonuses due to the Business Owner during the suspension period;

6.3.1.c Prohibiting the Business Owner from purchasing services and products from the Company; and/or;

6.3.1.d Prohibiting the Business Owner from sponsoring new Business Owners, contacting current Business Owners or attending meetings of Business Owners. If the Company, at its sole discretion, determines that the violation which caused the suspension is continuing, and has not satisfactorily been resolved or a new violation involving the suspended Business Owner has occurred, the suspended Business Owner may be terminated.

6.3.2. Termination

Dependent upon the seriousness of the violation, a Business Owner may be immediately terminated for violating the terms of the Agreement, P&P, Compensation Plan and/or any other relevant documents produced by the Company. The Company may, at its sole discretion, terminate a violating Business Owner without placing the Member on suspension. When the decision is made to terminate a Business Owner, the Company will inform the Business Owner in writing to the email address in the Business Owner/s file that the termination has occurred.

If a Business Owner wishes to ask the Company to review the decision to terminate, he shall make such a request to the Company in writing within thirty (30) days from the date of notice of termination. If no such request is received by the Company within the thirty (30) day period, the termination will automatically be deemed final. If a Business Owner files a timely written request, the Company will review the decision and notify the Member of the result of the review within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Business Owner's request. Thereafter, the Company will not further review its decision. In the event the termination decision is not reversed, the termination will remain effective as of the date stated in the original termination notice.

6.4 Effects of Resignation, Suspension and Termination

After resignation, the former Business Owner shall not further represent himself as Business Owner of the Company and shall cease to use any materials bearing the trademarks, service marks, trade names and any signs, labels, stationary or advertising referring to or relating to any products, plan or program of the Company. He shall have no rights to enjoy any benefits under the P&P and the Compensation Plan.

If a Business Owner is suspended, he shall not before the removal of his suspension, further represent himself or hold himself out as Business Owner of the Company. Nor shall he use any materials bearing the trademarks, service marks, trade names and any signs, labels, stationary or advertising referring to or relating to any products, plan or program of the Company. He shall have no rights to enjoy any benefits under the Agreement, P&P and/or the Compensation Plan. But he shall be allowed to retain his BUs pending the final resolution of his case. Any commissions and/or bonuses payable to him should he not be suspended shall be retained by the Company. If the suspension of the Business Owner is subsequently removed, all outstanding commissions and/or bonuses shall be paid to the Business Owner. However, if the Business Owner is subsequently terminated, the termination shall be treated as effective from the effective date of the suspension and all rebates and/or bonuses retained as aforesaid by the Company shall be forfeited forthwith to the Company. Immediately upon termination, the terminated Member:

6.4a Must remove and permanently discontinue the use of the trademarks, service marks, trade names and any signs, labels, stationary or advertising referring to or relating to any product, plan or program of the Company.

6.4b Must cease representing himself as a Business Owner of the Company;

6.4c Loses all rights to his Business Owner position in the Compensation Plan and to all future commissions and earnings resulting there from;

6.4d Must take all actions reasonably required by Company relating to protection of Company's confidential information. Company has the right to set off any amounts owed by the Business Owner to the Company including, without limitation, any indemnity obligation incurred pursuant to Section 9.15 (Indemnity) herein, from commissions or other compensation due to the Member.

6.5. Re-registration

A Business Owner who resigns or determinates his Membership may reapply as a new Member but such re-registration will only be considered six (6) months after resignation. The acceptance of any re-registration of a terminated Business Owner shall be at the sole discretion of Company. If re-registration has been approved, the Business Owner will have a new Business Unit from then on can he/she start building his/her own network organization.

Section 7-Transfer of Business Ownership

7.1. Acquisition of BusinessOwnership

No transfer of Business Ownership shall be allowed except those authorized by the company.

7.2. Acquisition of BusinessOwnership

Except as expressly set forth herein, a Business Owner may not sell, assign or otherwise transfer his Business Ownership (or any rights thereof) to another Business Owner or to any person. Notwithstanding the foregoing and paragraph (c) below.
